

The Future of Commissioning for Planned Surgery
27 January 2016
The Royal College of Surgeons

Time	Topic	Speaker
9.00am	Registration and Refreshments
Session 1 - National priorities for planned surgical care
9.30 am	Welcome	Miss Clare Marx
9.50 am	Improving the efficiency and effectiveness of elective surgery	Mrs Celia Ingham- Clark
10.20 am	Work of NHS RightCare and the Atlas of Variation	Sir Muir Gray & Professor Matthew Cripps
10.40 am	Q&A
11.00 am	Refreshments
Session 2 – National Surgical Commissioning Centre (NSCC)
11.25 am	Co – creating the National Surgical Commissioning Centre	Mr Nigel Beasley
11.40 am	Developing the resources within the NSCC	Mr Simon Swift & Professor Paul O’Flynn
12:05pm	Q&A
Session 3-‘Value’ and ‘Demand management’ breakout sessions
12.15pm	Break out 1
	1. Supporting patients in their choice
	The use of patient decision aids Designing and using patient decision aids to support shared decision making	Dr Steve Laitner
	High risk surgery pre-assessment and shared decision making Helping individual patients to make their choice for AAA surgery or Hip and Knee Replacement surgery	Dr Mike Swart
	Patient-centred consent Using the patient request for treatment consent process	Professor Kayvan Shokrollahi
	2. Improving efficiency and quality of care
	Implementing a theatres improvement programme Using NHS benchmarking data to support improvements in theatre efficiency	Katherine Hine
	Reconfiguring Surgical Oncology Lessons learned from implementing NICE Guidance	Mark Baker , Clinical Director, NICE
13.00 pm	Lunch
14:00 pm	Break out 2
	3. Pre-operative optimisation
	Pre-operative optimisation in the elderly patient Implementing a POPS scheme care of the Elderly Surgical Patient	Dr Jugdeep Dhesi
	Pre-operative optimisation in the elderly Exercise testing in preoperative care in the elderly	Dr Chris Snowden

	4. Right person; RightCare
	Getting it right for orthopaedics Learning from the first round of 'Getting it right the first time'	Professor Tim Briggs
	Better knowledge, better care , better outcomes Using data to identify priorities for implementing best practice	Liz Lingard
14.45 pm	Refreshments
15.15 pm	Breakout 3
	5. Enhanced recovery in planned surgical care
	Pathway re-design in elective orthopaedic surgery Lessons learned from a multi-professional approach to pathway re-design	Mr Mike Bullock
	Implementing enhanced recovery in urology Lessons learnt from applying enhanced recovery principles to urological surgery	Mr John McGrath
	6. Ensuring local delivery of children's surgery
	Network Development and Impact: The East Midlands Experience Learning from the East Midlands Paediatric Surgical Network	Mr Richard Stewart
	Paediatric Surgery Networks Learning from the South West Paediatric Surgical Network	Miss Janet McNally
16.00pm	Feedback from session
16.30pm	Closing remarks

'Value' and 'Demand management' breakout sessions

Delegates can pick 1 from each of the 3 breakout sessions. Notes will be available of other sessions.

Sessions to include panels and be discussion based, chairs drawn from DPAs, RCS council and Regional Coordinators/ RCS staff to support as note-takers: 45 minutes per session