

Royal College
of Surgeons

FACULTY OF DENTAL SURGERY

Membership of the Faculty of Dental Surgery (MFDS)

Applications Invited

MFDS Part 1/Part 2 Leads

Two vacancies have arisen for pivotal roles in the management and development of the MFDS, the membership examination of the Faculty of Dental Surgery at The Royal College of Surgeons of England (RCSEng). The aim of the MFDS is to assess knowledge and skills after completion of the foundation training programme for all dental graduates, whether they intend to pursue a career in general or specialist practice.

MFDS Part 1 Lead

MFDS Part 2 OSCE Lead

The posts would suit those involved in all sectors of dental care who have experience in assessment techniques. The duration of appointment is for three years (2020-2023). You will be required to attend up to 10 days of meetings/exams per year.

Please note selection will be by competitive interview.

For more information please contact the Examinations department at ExamsQAteam@rcseng.ac.uk.

Completed application forms should be emailed to ExamsQAteam@rcseng.ac.uk.

The closing date for applications is 2 December 2019.

Dental and Surgical Examinations Directorate

Examination Board Component Lead

Role and Responsibilities

Introduction

Each set of examinations offered by the Royal College of Surgeons of England (RCSEng) falls under the Governance structure of the RCSEng. That structure is supplemented by bi-collegiate, tri-collegiate and intercollegiate arrangements for managing the examinations, with some examinations activity overseen by joint steering committees. Each examination has its own Examination Board.

Responsibilities

The role of the Examination Board Component Lead is to contribute to the running and development of the relevant examination under the guidance of the Chair by:

- Producing question material in a timely manner, working in collaboration with other colleagues where necessary
- Ensuring that question material produced fulfils the blueprinting requirement informed by the relevant examination syllabus, as identified by the Chair
- Ensuring that question material produced assesses knowledge and/or skills at an appropriate standard
- Reviewing examination question performance and discussing draft examination reports
- Contributing to proposals for changes to examination content or format by helping to outline the rationale for, and potential impact of, recommended developments
- Participating in Examiner training exercises

Person Specification

- Demonstrable commitment to the relevant examination through participation as an examiner
- Interest in medical education and assessment, ideally demonstrated with a relevant postgraduate qualification (e.g. M.Ed)

Recruitment

- Appointment will be made by the Chair of the relevant Examination Board, following consideration of applications supported by personal statements.

MFDS EXAM BOARD

TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. Purpose

- 1.1 To develop and oversee all aspects of the MFDS examination in line with RCSEng's Assessment Principles.

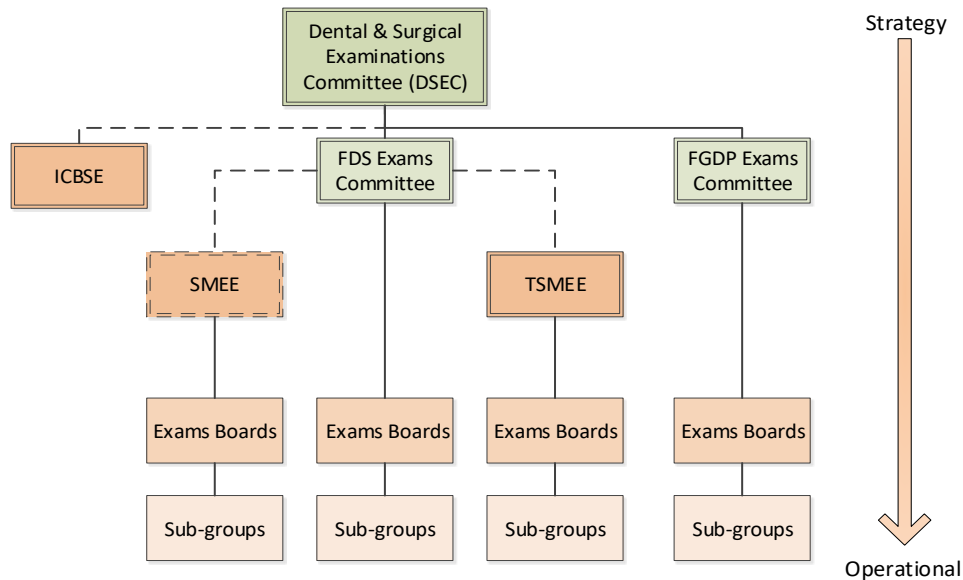

2. Functions/Responsibilities

- 2.1 To determine and maintain under review the components of the examinations and the format of each component.
- 2.2 To determine and maintain for each diet the standard against which candidates are assessed in each component of the examination through standard setting exercises as required.
- 2.3 To determine the appropriate syllabus coverage for the examination by constructing and maintaining a blueprinting grid outlining the proportional contribution of different knowledge and/or skill domains. For course-based examinations, this will entail appropriate liaison with Course Leads, tutors and relevant members of staff.
- 2.4 To ensure that the content of examination papers is of appropriate scope and quality by prospectively reviewing papers produced by the Leads responsible for each component, as allocated by the Chair.
- 2.5 To determine the examination calendar for the examination and its components, including any overseas activity as required.
- 2.6 To determine criteria for the selection and appointment of examiners/question writers and to ratify their appointment.
- 2.7 To determine and deliver examiner training programmes.
- 2.8 To determine eligibility criteria for examination applicants and determine eligibility for exceptional applicants.
- 2.9 To provide the FDS Examinations Committee with quarterly reports of the activities of the Board and a report on examination performance following each diet.
- 2.10 To develop high quality assessment techniques for the examination, appropriately validated, to the agreed schedule, in line with RCSEng policies and best assessment practice which efficiently assess whether candidates have met the requirements specified in the relevant examination syllabus.
- 2.11 To undertake a full impact analysis of any proposed changes to the examination, including resource, financial and logistical implications, for consideration by the FDS Examinations Committee and DSEC.
- 2.12 To develop, establish and maintain quality assurance processes, in line with RCSEng's Quality Assurance Framework, to ensure the fairness and integrity of the examination.
- 2.13 To approve and maintain examination regulations and candidate guidance pertaining to the examination components produced by the relevant Component Lead.

3. Governance

3.1 Examination Boards report to the relevant Examinations Committee or, where applicable, to the relevant Examinations Executive, as shown in the governance structure below:

3.2 The MFDS Exam Board reports to the FDS Examination Committee, where it is represented by the Chair.

4. Composition

4.1 The Examination Board will comprise the following positions:

- Chair
- Deputy Chair
- Part 1 Lead
- Part 1 Deputy Lead
- Part 2 OSCE Lead
- Part 2 OSCE Deputy Lead
- QA Manager

4.2 The Chair may appoint a lay representative and a trainee representative if necessary.

4.3 The Chair may invite others to attend the Committee as required for a specific purpose and for a specific period of time.

4.4 A quorum of the Board will consist of three members of the Board plus the Chair or a Board member designated by the Chair to fulfil the Chair's role.

5. Appointments

5.1 The Chair will be appointed by the FDS Examinations Committees. The Chair will serve for a period of three years, or for a period to be determined by FDS Examinations Committee.

Royal College

FACULTY OF DENTAL SURGERY

- 5.2 The Chair will recommend to the FDS Examinations Committee prospective appointments of the other members of the Examination Board. Examination Board members will serve for a period of three years, or for a period to be determined by the FDS Examinations Committee.
- 5.3 Existing members are eligible to apply for a further three years on the Exam Board subject to fulfilling the appropriate criteria (such as examinership tenure), albeit not in the same position. The maximum tenure for any individual on the Exam Board is six years.
- 5.4 Re-appointments are subject to the standard application process. The Chair reserves the right to terminate an Exam Board member's appointment in writing, in accordance with the relevant College guidance for Exam Board membership.
