Draft programme

Royal College of Surgeons
ADVANCING SURGICAL CARE

Running and setting up surgical virtual outpatient clinics

Nottingham Racecourse, Colwick Park, Nottingham NG2 4BE
Friday 17 May 2019

Times	Programme	Speaker
9am	Registration and refreshments
9.45am	Welcome and introduction	Angus Wallace RCS East Midlands Regional Director
Session 1 Chair: Angus Wallace
10am	Scottish plans for a roll-out of virtual surgical clinics in Scotland	David McDonald Quality and Efficiency Support Team
10.20am	How we developed the virtual fracture clinic in Glasgow	Lech Rymaszewski Consultant Orthopaedic surgeon
10.40am	How we developed our virtual diabetes clinic in east London and how it works	Shanti Vijayaraghavan Consultant Diabetologist
11am	Q&A panel discussion
11.20am	Refreshment break

Draft programme

Session 2 Chair: TBC
11.40am	How we run colo-rectal virtual follow-up telephone clinics	Andrew Miles Chair of Regional Directors
12pm	Steps required to organise and collate the information and equipment required for running a virtual clinic	Andrew Brown Consultant Orthopaedic surgeon
12.20pm	The hurdles I had to overcome in 2011 to start an NHS Shoulder Telemedicine Clinic at Nottingham University Hospital NHS Trust	Angus Wallace RCS East Midlands Regional Director
12.40pm	The challenges we experienced in setting up the East Midlands Specialist Orthopaedic Network (EMSON)	Peter James Consultant Orthopaedic surgeon
1pm	Q&A panel discussion
1.20pm	Lunch
Session 3 Chair: Andrew Miles
2.20pm	Our problems with negotiating funding for Virtual Clinics	TBC
2.40pm	Problems with my IT system in preparation to start virtual clinics and are they better than paper clinic follow up	Ashish Kelkar Consultant Colo-rectal surgeon
3pm	Virtual Clinic follow up of hip and knee joint replacement	Dan Williams Consultant Hip and knee surgeon
3.20pm	Q&A panel discussion
3.40pm	Refreshment break

Draft programme

Session 4 Panel discussion Chair: TBC
4pm	Panel discussion
4.30pm	How the Royal College of Surgeons can help in providing support for Virtual Clinics
4.40	Closing remarks	