

Senior Women in Surgery

The future of women in surgery: Leading the surgical profession

Friday 6 October 2017

Provisional programme

Time	Topic	Speakers
9.30am	Registrations and refreshments
10.15am	Welcome and Introduction	Professor Farah Bhatti Chair of WinS
Maximising your potential
10.30am	The female presidency: 3 years on: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Leadership qualities• Developing leadership skills• Leading vs managing	Miss Clare Marx (RCS), Prof Jane Dacre (RCP) Dr Suzy Lishman (RCPath)
11.30am	Emerging Leaders programme	Dr Laurie Baxter Steering group member Mrs Susan Williams-Jones ‘Graduate’ of programme
12.00pm	Lunch and networking
1.00pm	Developing resilience and preventing burnout	Dr Shirley Remington Associate Dean, North West HEE
Women in surgery – helping each other build a strong profession
1.50pm	Getting involved – Supporting the future of surgery with the RCS <ul style="list-style-type: none">• AAC Assessors• Council• Examining• Regional Roles• SACs	Mr Daniel Redfern Miss Helen Fernandes Mr Tim Mitchell Ms Simone Slawik Miss Stella Vig
2.20pm	Keynote 1	Mrs Laura Davies Labour general election candidate and MRCS
2.50pm	Q&A panel
3.10pm	Refreshments
The future of women in surgery – supporting the next generation of surgeons
3.30pm	How to be a good role model	Mrs Scarlett McNally RCS Council Member

3.50pm	Action Planning – What can women in surgery do to support future surgeons?	Round tables – facilitated by WinS Forum members
4.20pm	Keynote 2	Sophie Walker Leader of the Womens Equality Party
4.50pm	Wrap up and Close	Professor Farah Bhatti
5.00pm	Depart	